Hi, I’m Donna and I’m talking with people today about Jesus, would you like to talk? I rather like this bold approach to street evangelism because it gets right to the most important subject in the world, JESUS, who He is and what He has done for us! I use many approaches but this is my favorite. My favorite place is a downtown Denver outside Mall on 16th St. People of all sorts hang out there, from the homeless to the wealthy and it seems every nation of the world is represented.

in your own heart language! You might be surprised how many people really want to talk about Jesus! God will give you the boldness. He asks us to go and He will bring you people and the words. He will even train you given the chance. Come with us!

I was handing out Billion $$ bills last week when Richard, an undercover police man stopped to ask what I was selling. I told him I was giving away billion dollar bills and asked him if he had the answer to the Billion $$ question. He laughed as I explained the Billion $$ question. He told me he was Catholic but not happy there. Richard understood the authenticity of Scripture and his need to have sins forgiven, he just never realized salvation was a free gift and could not be earned. Ephesians 2:8-10

Ahmed told me he wanted to talk because we both loved the same Jesus. I asked him about his Jesus who he explained as a prophet, lower in rank than Mohammed and is returning again to break the cross and kill all Christians and Jews. I knew I had Good News for him and he was actually willing to listen to the True Gospel message of the Real Jesus! Ahmed seemed to understand the Bible teaches in Leviticus 17:11 that without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sin. Sacrifice is taught in the Quran (Sura 37:107) when God provided a lamb for Abraham so he did not need to kill His ‘only son’. I explained that John the Baptist understood this when he saw Jesus and proclaimed in John 1:29, “Look! God’s lamb! The one who is taking away the sin of the world”. Hebrew’s 10 tells us that bulls and goats only cover our sin until the ‘Once and for all of the cross. Ahmed left with a Gospel tract in Arabic that explains this truth as he was troubled about his sin. Islam offers heaven only if you earned it and are a Muslim.

Abdullah on the other hand had been taught that the Bible was corrupted and only the Quran has pure truth. I explained facts that prove our Old Testament today is exactly the same as Jesus taught from. Sura 5:46-48 in the Quran proves the Bible was not corrupted at the time the Quran was written 600 years after Jesus. God watches his Word; see Isaiah 55:11, Luke 21:33 and Sura 5:46-48. The Dead Sea Scrolls also factually prove our Bible is not corrupted. I asked, “If God could not keep his first words to us pure what makes you think he can keep the Quran pure? How big is your God Abdullah?” As we talked starting in Genesis and ending in Revelation he let God plant seeds of truth about Himself, the cross and forgiveness of sin. Only God knows Abdullah’s heart.

Hamed had been given an Arabic Bible with my phone number in it. God knew he was disillusioned with Islam and was planting many seeds of truth to bring him to the point of ‘honestly’ wanting to know Him. (Jeremiah 29:13) A few weeks later, sitting in Burger King together, Hamed was ready to repent of his sins and receive God’s free gift of salvation provided by Jesus!

Paul (see page 7 photo of me and Paul on the streets where we met for the first time) wanted to talk about Jesus because his grandmother had just died and her last words to him were that he and his children better make it to heaven. He invited me to sit on the bench with him as I explained the simple Gospel message. He knew he could never be good enough to earn heaven so he was more than ready to receive God’s free gift provided by Jesus! Paul understood why Jesus wanted to die for our sins, be buried and rise again! 1 Cor. 15:1-6

Only God knows the hearts of people. He wants to use us to plant seeds of truth. Sometimes we even get to harvest in those fields! 😃

Stay excited about Jesus,

It is Scripturally impossible to claim that “the Jews cannot be blamed for not accepting what was never offered.” A glorious offer was made and refused, and that’s why Paul’s heart was broken (see Rom 9:1-5).

Jesus remains the Jewish Messiah, and there is no salvation for the Jewish people outside of faith in him. Paul declared that the message of the Gospel was to Israel first, and then from Israel to the nations (see Luke 24:47; Acts 1:8; 3:26; 13:32-39; Rom 1:16; in Paul’s words to the Jewish leaders in Rome, it was “for the sake of the hope of Israel” that he was bound in chains; Acts 28:20).

Let’s continue to make the truth known: Yeshua is the Messiah of Israel, the King of the Jews, the Savior of the World!

God bless and keep you, tell the truth,

— Pastor Randy

Understanding Bible Prophecy
The Future
According to Almighty God

They are all related to the study of Bible prophecy. And very few topics are more misunderstood than Bible Prophecy.

The study of Bible Prophecy is one of the most controversial topics in the Christian Church today. Most Christian Churches ignore or are ignorant of the significance prophecy plays in the Bible. Approximately 30% of the Bible is prophetic in nature. Since the Bible is God’s Word, and 30% of that Word has to do with prophecy, should not Christians have a significant interest in this area?

When studying Bible Prophecy, it is essential that the various prophecies are understood in their correct context and application. Bible Prophecy deals with the Jew, the Christian and the non-believer. Failure to correctly discern these applications leaves the reader in constant turmoil, unable to resolve Scripture: ... the Church is not Israel and Israel is not the Church. Some of the most confusing prophetic voices today teach that there is no distinction between Israel and the Church, and that the Church today is spiritual Israel and is destined to fulfill the promises of God to that chosen nation.

There is a God in Heaven that reveals secrets ...

(Daniel 2:28) The Lord God Himself, the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last, has ordained prophecy for the expressed purpose of proving He is Who He says He is. In fact, in the Old Testament of the Bible, Moses asked God Whose Name he (Moses) should declare to the Israelites when they ask Who commissioned him to lead them out of Egypt into the passage refers to the one descendant, the Messiah, who would descend from Abraham and The Abrahamic promise was transferred to Isaac when God said, "For in Isaac shall thy seed be called." (3) Isaac was the result of a miracle. Sarah, previously barren, conceived him when she was 90 years old, well past the age of child bearing. Abraham was 100 years old. Although Abraham's eldest son by Hagar, Ishmael, would have been Abraham's natural heir, God chose Isaac as the one through whom the Messianic lineage would continue.

The selection of Isaac as heir to the promise was confirmed when Abraham showed his willingness to sacrifice his only legitimate son. This call was God's way of testing Abraham's faith. God did not intend to let Isaac die. After Abraham proved his faith, God said to him: "And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed. because thou hast obeyed my voice." (4)

Jacob was the next heir to the promise, even though he was the younger of Isaac's twin sons. This selection was made by God while the children were still in Rebecca's womb, when He told her, "The elder shall serve the younger." (5)

Jacob wrested his brother Esau's birthright from him. This occurred when Esau, hungry after an unsuccessful hunt, begged Jacob for some of the stew Jacob was preparing. Jacob agreed to share it after Esau chose to trade his birthright in return.

Jacob was assured of the Messianic promise in a dream, when God spoke to him saying, "And in thee and in thy seed shall all families of the earth be blessed." (6) Jacob, then, undoubtedly knew that he would continue the lineage of his father, Isaac, and of his grandfather, Abraham, in some significant way known by God.

Although a Russian-backed Arab invasion of Israel is foretold in the prophecy of Ezekiel (38, 39) after Israel is restored as a nation (Ezekiel 36, 37) this invasion is not the Battle of Armageddon. While the prophetic language in Ezekiel seems to describe Armageddon in many ways, there are several reasons to differentiate this invasion from the Battle of Armageddon (Prophecy Watch, 212-214). It should be noted that some Bible Prophecy scholars see Ezekiel 38 starting at the mid-point of the Tribulation Period. Either way, by the time Ezekiel 39 comes to pass, it seems Armageddon is the final result of the battles.

This invasion (unsuccessful by the way) may result in the emergence of the Antichrist who arrives on the scene just in time to take credit for the devastating defeat of the Russian-Arabian alliance. If so, the Antichrist would then institute the false peace covenant as the False Messiah of Israel. The Bible clearly indicates that the overwhelming majority of the world is fooled by the Antichrist into believing he is the "messiah", albeit a political one (even and especially Israel!). The term Antichrist doesn't just mean "opposed" to Christ but the name "Antichrist" actually means "instead of" or "counterfeit" Christ. He will seem to embody all of the qualities the non-believing world expects from Jesus Christ but...
When is the Battle of Armageddon? The actual date of Armageddon is a hidden mystery of prophecy. Yet it is a temporary mystery because the Day of the Lord, another term for Armageddon, cannot be known and yet can be known. What absurd paradox is this? This is but one of several mysteries God presents us with in Scripture. When Jesus was talking to His disciples, He was speaking on several topics including the End of the Age, Armageddon and the Rapture of the Church. He told them they could not know the day and hour of the Rapture but that they could know the season (Matthew 24:32-35). Jesus is coming two more times, first (invisible to the world) at the Rapture of the Church, as a Thief in the Night (Matthew 24:36-51) and again (visible to the world) at the Battle of Armageddon (Zechariah 14). "Watch therefore, for ye know neither the Day nor the Hour wherein the Son of Man Cometh" (Matthew 25:1-13)

The Day of the Lord, the Battle of Armageddon, cannot be known right now because the Church must first be Raptured so that the Antichrist can be revealed (2nd Thessalonians 2:1-12). After the Antichrist makes a seven-year peace treaty with Israel (Daniel 9:27, Matthew 24:15-18) he (the Antichrist) will break the covenant 1,260 days into the "week" of years (Daniel 9:27b,c). Now (the middle of the week of 7 years) wise Jews will know when Christ returns because there are references to 1,290 days and 1,335 days (Daniel 12:11-12). The Battle of Armageddon begins 1,260 days after the Antichrist breaks the false peace agreement with Israel (Armageddon is at the end of the 7 years of the false peace accord). The indication is that the Millennial Reign of Christ begins at the end of the 1,335 days. That God will be dealing uniquely with Israel and not the Church during this period seems to be confirmed in the fact that the Christian Church was not present for the first 483 years of the Decree upon Israel and Jerusalem; therefore it does not follow that the Christian Church will be present for the last 7 years of the Decree. There will, of course, be Jews and non-believing Gentiles converted to Christ during the Tribulation Period.

In the Book of Daniel, the prophet Daniel is told that the mystery of the End Times is sealed up until the Last Days, (Daniel 12:4) and that many people will travel extensively and human knowledge will be dramatically increased (Daniel 12:4). During the first 5900 years of recorded human history from 4000 B.C. to 1900 A.D. men conveyed themselves mainly on horseback. In 1903, the Wright brothers were thrilled when the world's first motorized airplane flew a few hundred feet. Between 1900 -1969, in just 69 short years, men developed mass production of automobiles, massive steel passenger ships, refined the airplane and evolved it into the jumbo jet airliner, left the bonds of Earth and orbited the sky, set foot on the Moon 240,000 miles away in the cold vacuum of space, created the television, the computer and the inter-continental nuclear bomb. All in only 69 short years! And yet the optimism for man in the 20th century has been stained by the fact that the major wars claimed 87,000,000 (that's right million) lives while another 83,000,000+ have been lost in the various pogroms, insurrections, etc. The total for the highly-educated 20th century: 170,000,000+ indicating man’s intelligence is not capable of breeding true peace. "Watch therefore: for ye know not what Hour your Lord doth Come" (Matthew 24:42)

So we study Bible Prophecy, looking for the Prince of Peace, the King of Israel, the King of Kings, Jesus Christ who will set up a never-ending Kingdom on Earth and True Peace. This Kingdom, of which the first 1,000 years are known as the Millennial Reign of Christ, begins after the Battle of Armageddon. The details of the period known as the Day of the Lord, including the Battle of Armageddon are found in the Apocalypse. The Book of the Bible known as the Apocalypse is actually the Revelation of Jesus Christ, written by the Apostle John on the island of Patmos around 90-95 A.D. The Apostle John is known in evangelical songs and teachings as “John the Revelator”. Know this, Armageddon will not take place until seven (7) 360-day years are completed after the false peace pact with Israel is signed by the Antichrist, as foretold in Daniel's prophecy.
