סוכות SUKKOT

15-22 Tishri

FESTIVAL OF BOOTHS -TABERNACLES -

ADONAI said to Moshe, "Tell the people of Isra'el, 'On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the feast of Sukkot for seven days to ADONAI. On the first day is to be a holy convocation; do not do any kind of ordinary work. For seven days you are to bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI; on the eighth day you are to have a holy convocation and bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI; it is a day of public assembly; do not do any kind of ordinary work. Vayikra-Leviticus 23:33-36

SUKKOT (15 Tishri) - The Festival of Tabernacles or Booths (Hebrew 'sukkot'). One of the three pilgrim festivals (the others being Passover and Shavuot) when, in ancient times, Jews made pilgrimages to the Temple in Jerusalem. It derives its name from the 'sukkah' or booth, a temporary structure in which time is spent during the holiday to commemorate God's protection of the Children of Israel during their 40 years in the wilderness.

The first two days (in Israel the first day) are full holidays. The following five intermediate days, 'Hol Hamoed,' (six in Israel) are partial holidays.

Sukkot is also a harvest festival since it is the time of the ingathering of crops in Israel. During the entire Sukkot festival, the Four Species (citron, myrtle, palm, and willow) are waved during portions of the service.

THE REAL MESSIAH?

שבת BIBLICAL SABBATH

day of holiness and rest observed by Jews from sunset on Friday to nightfall of the following day. The time division follows the biblical story of creation: "And there was evening and there was morning, one day" (Genesis 1:5). Weekly observance begins with candle lighting Friday evening before sunset & ends Saturday at nightfall. In Jewish homes the woman of the house lights white Sabbath candles before sunset on Friday evening and pronounces a benediction. The Sabbath meal that follows is preceded by the Kiddush (blessing of sanctification). SHABBAT SHALOM Blessed are you ADONAI our God, King of the Universe who sanctified us by your Word, & commanded us to be a light for the nations & gave us YESHUA /Jesus our Messiah, the light of the world.
