Rosh Hashanah Yom T'rooah

1 Tishri

- ★ May the sound of the Shofar shatter our complacency, make us conscious of the corruption and magnitude of our sin in our lives and, of the Lord's mercy for those who genuinely turn to Him.
- ★ May the sound of the Shofar penetrate our hearts and cause us to turn to our Father in heaven through Yeshua the Messiah Who has freed us from slavery to sin. Stir us to desire to walk in this freedom.
- ★ May the sound of the Shofar inspire us to wholeheartedly seek and devote ourselves to the one and only true God. Remind us of the day our Fathers stood at Mount Sinai and promised, "All that the Lord has spoken, we will do and we will be obedient."
- ★ May the sound of the Shofar inspire us to proclaim liberty and life in Messiah Yeshua to Israel and to all people.

Yom Kippur

Atonement

ADONAI said to Moshe, "The tenth day of this seventh month is Yom-Kippur; you are to have a holy convocation, you are to deny yourselves, and you are to bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI. You are not to do any kind of work on that day, because it is Yom-Kippur, to make atonement for you before ADONAI your God. Anyone who does not deny himself on that day is to be cut off from his people; and anyone who does any kind of work on that day, I will destroy from among his people. You are not to do any kind of work; it is a permanent regulation through all your generations, no matter where you live. It will be for you a Shabbat of complete rest, and you are to deny yourselves; you are to rest on your Shabbat from evening the ninth day of the month until the following evening. Vayikra/Leviticus 23.26-32

The time division follows the biblical story of creation: "And there was evening and there was morning, one day" (Genesis 1:5). Observance begins with candle lighting Friday evening before sunset & ends Saturday at nightfall. In Jewish homes the woman of the house lights white Sabbath candles before sunset on Friday evening and pronounces a benediction. The Sabbath meal that follows is preceded by the Kiddush. (blessing of sanctification). SHABBAT SHALOM Blessed are you ADONAI our God, King of the Universe who sanctified us by your Word, & commanded us to be a light for the nations & gave us YESHUA /Jesus our Messiah, the light of the world.
