PRAYER CALENDAR Jewish events plus Prayer for Israel & Jewish people — SALVATION לְחַיִּים - To Life!
When you seek me, you will find me, provided you seek for me wholeheartedly. Yirmeyahu/Jeremiah 29:13

Rosh Hashanah
Yom T'rooah

1 Tishri

★ May the sound of the Shofar shatter our complacency, make us conscious of the corruption and magnitude of our sin in our lives and, of the Lord's mercy for those who genuinely turn to Him.

★ May the sound of the Shofar penetrate our hearts and cause us to turn to our Father in heaven through Yeshua the Messiah Who has freed us from slavery to sin. Stir us to desire to walk in this freedom.

★ May the sound of the Shofar inspire us to wholeheartedly seek and devote ourselves to the one and only true God. Remind us of the day our Fathers stood at Mount Sinai and promised, "All that the Lord has spoken, we will do and we will be obedient."

★ May the sound of the Shofar inspire us to proclaim liberty and life in Messiah Yeshua to Israel and to all people.

Yom Kippur is the holiest day of the Jewish calendar. Marked by fasting and prayer, it is the day to ask forgiveness from man and from God and to offer restitution for any wrongdoing. According to tradition, one's fate for the coming year is sealed on this day. 11 Tishri יא	29 12 Tishri יג	30 12 Tishri יג	25 7 Tishri ז	Shabbat Biblical SABBATH, day of holiness and rest observed by Jews from sunset on Friday to nightfall of the following day. The time division follows the biblical story of creation: "And there was evening and there was morning, one day" (Genesis 1:5). Observance begins with candle lighting Friday evening before sunset & ends Saturday at nightfall. In Jewish homes the woman of the house lights white Sabbath candles before sunset on Friday evening and pronounces a benediction. The Sabbath meal that follows is preceded by the Kiddush. (blessing of sanctification). SHABBAT SHALOM Blessed are you ADONAI our God, King of the Universe who sanctified us by your Word, & commanded us to be a light for the nations & gave us YESHUA /Jesus our Messiah, the light of the world.
