

Him and by His stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned everyone to his own way, & the Lord(Jehovah) hath laid on Him the iniquities of us all.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given, and the government shall be upon His shoulder: and His Name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Father of Eternity, The Prince of Peace.
(Isaiah 9:6)

The time will come when Zechariah's prophecy will be fulfilled:

They (the Jewish people) shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

THIS IS THE ANSWER

One and a Half Billion People plus

by Rachmiel Frydland

There are 1,500,000 people who believe that one of our people who lived in Eretz Yisrael (land of Israel) was unique, that he was the Messiah, the Ben elohim(Son of God). They believe in the Brit Hadasha(New Testament) which was written by Jews. They also believe in the Tenach (Old Testament), in Moses, and the Jewish Prophetsteaching the heathen as a result many of them have gone to distant parts of the earth. They have spent their lives translating for them our Bible. All this they did and do because they believe in a Jew, born of flesh and bone - that He is the Messiah of Jew and Gentile. Does it mean that they are all meshuga(crazy)? Or could it be -that we have made a mistake in relation to Him?

One and a Half Billion People plus

The Prophets Agree

Our Prophets agree that our Messiah will also come to redeem the Gentiles. Ya'acov Avinu (Jacob our Patriarch) says in Bereshit (Genesis 49:10) that:

The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between His feet until Shiloh come, and unto Him shall the gathering of the people be.

(Hebrew: "Velo Yikhat Amim" = Him shall the nations obey). Yeshayah Hanovee

(Isaiah the Prophet) says:

And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign to the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and His rest shall be glorious. (11:10)

Further it is written: "And He (the Lord) said, It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant to raise up Israel. I will also give Thee for a light to the Gentiles, that Thou mayest be My salvation unto the end of the earth." (The "Servant" raises and restores Israel but is not identical with Israel).

The Prophet Haggai (2:7) speaks of the desire of all nations (Hebrew:

Goyim) who shall come. Will you then agree that at least part of these prophecies have been fulfilled in the Jewish Messiah whom the nations worship, namely Yeshua (Jesus) of Nazareth?

Modern Rabbinical Thought

Some of our Orthodox Rabbis told us the worst stories about Jesus. They said that He performed the miracles by stealing away the Shem Hamphorash (Sacred Name of Jehovah) and sewing it into the calf of His foot. Now does it stand to reason that God Himself would permit such a horrible impostor, as these Rabbis picture Him, to use God's Holy Name to perform miracles, and that millions of people should be misled to this very day?

Modern Jewish Rabbis and scholars have a lofty opinion about Jesus. He is considered by some a great prophet, a great ethical teacher, the best of men and even the Messiah of the Gentiles. (Eg., Graetz, Montefiore, Joseph Klausner, Sholem Asch) Now if He was such a good man, he surely would not have told a lie when He continually claimed to be the Messiah.

This Is The Answer

We Jews who believe that He is the Messiah say with Yeshayah Hanovee (Isaiah 53:4-6):

Surely He has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows. Yet we did esteem Him stricken, smitten of God and afflicted. But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon
